

APPLY TO ZERO WASTE PROJECT HELP!

Never in recent history happened to have such big loss in European economy as happened in last months!

Good news is: tourism sector will recover soon!
Is everything going back same way?
Not, at all!

Customers will be different in their attitudes to choose premises and services.
Tourists will choose first according to safety!

This is the moment to change the premises and the services being able to provide ecocompatible and safe offers.

Zero Waste system is a friendly approach to make ecocompatible and safe your business and gain a valuable Zero Waste System Brand.

In our site <http://www.zerowastepower.eu> you could find free of charge didactic materials, methodologies and self training clips.

At this link <http://www.zerowastepower.eu/motivational-quest.html> you could answer to a short questionnaire and ask to receive a free help to assess your business.

The project developed also a comprehensive curriculum for vocational students and teachers, so that they can promote a 'zero-waste' strategy for the hospitality sector through their vocational learning and teaching.

The curriculum is presented as a handbook, supported by interactive learning animations which are developed for that purpose. Each animation is based on the following topics: kitchen organisation in the HoReCa sector; menu planning for sustainable food; waste reduction and recycling; packaging; energy and chemical pollution reduction.

This handbook is now available to view online at:
